One of the industry's biggest concert draws, Shane & Shane is playing new songs from Pages and other fan favorites spanning its repertoire of hits in 70-plus concerts scheduled between now and Nov. 12. Widely known for its engaging live performance, the duo headlines its Pages Tour with co-headliner Bebo Norman and will be playing select dates with Third Day's Mac Powell and David Nasser on the Glory Revealed tour, as well as select dates with MercyMe. See www.shaneandshane.com for all the latest tour dates and more.

Shane & Shane's sixth album, Pages, was recorded at the duo's Spaceway Studios in Dallas, TX and features 13 impassioned songs, plus a bonus track. Co-produced by Shane Everett and Shane Barnard alongside Will Hunt (Bethany Dillon, Shawn McDonald, Robbie Seay Band), Pages was named for a reference to the journal pages on which Barnard wrote much of the album and features the radio single, “We Love You Jesus.”

Shane Everett and Shane Barnard formed the duo Shane & Shane soon after a mutual friend asked Everett if Barnard could borrow a guitar for a concert in 1997. In December 2001, they signed with Inpop Records, home to such notable acts as newsboys, Superchick, Mat Kearney, Tree63 and others. Since then, the acoustic-guitar wielding pair has become a college-circuit favorite with five label releases to its credit, hundreds of thousands of albums sold, Dove Award nominations, plus countless hours logged on the road, including headlining tours with Mat Kearney, David Crowder Band, Bethany Dillon, Robbie Seay Band, among others. The duo can also be found leading worship for the college bible study at Grand Prairie Bible Church in Grand Prairie, TX.
